

Workshop on Technical Accounting for Reinsurance

Accounting for Reinsurance is highly specialized.

In today's computerized age, a majority of staff mechanically carry out daily activities without a full understanding of concepts and their significance.

This practical workshop is intended to provide participants with a firm grip on a full cycle of reinsurance accounting, issues and principles.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

These workshops are primarily catered to Executives and Managers in accounts, underwriting, claims, marketing and HR departments in (Re)Insurance and Broking industries.

Courses will have numerous practical examples to enhance the understanding of concepts and terminology

Courses conducted by highly qualified professionals in both Finance and (Re)Insurance, with up-to-date knowledge and vast experience in the subject
